CHINA NEEDS ROADS, AUTOS

Shanghai, Feb. 4.-American motor car builders and American manufacturers of road making machinery may well pool their interests in China. There's a rich field for both here and the development for each depends on the activity of the other.

Automobiles follow good roads, and good roads create a demand for automobiles. China is shoy on both. Pekin has about 150 miles of street that is fit to drive over. There are short stretches out through the re-Shanghal, with its foreign population of 20,000, has more automobiles than all the rest of China. There are 12000 cars in use and two or three hundred more in storage.

CITY ATTORNEY TO MAKE SPEECH AT DEDICATION

City Attorney J. B. Jones will make a speech of presentation at the dedication of the Knights of Columbus hut at the Naval Air Station tonight. Captain F. M. Bennett of the station is expected to make the response, accepting the hut for the use of the naval men. Rev. Fr. McDermott will dedicate the building by a prayer.

The program will be short and rather informal and member sof the K. of C. and their friends and any who wish to attend the exercises are invited to be present by Secretary Duess, of the K. of C., who is stationed at the navy yard. The party is expected to leave this city on the Bay Shore streets at 6:45 o'clock tonight.

MAIL SERVICE UNDER HUN WAS VERY POOR

(N. E. A. Special.) Paris. Feb. 5 .- A letter posted at Gerpinnes in Belgium on August 17, 1914, by a Belgian soldier and addressed to his parents in Paris has just been delivered. Shortly after the letter had been put in the box the village was occupied by the Germans. During four years the letter remained in the box which the Germans did not take the trouble to open. When the village was again freed and postal communications resumed, the box was opened and the letter found. It arrived in Paris on December 28.
